FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Gay Video Workshop at the Experimental Television Center
Friday November 30 through Sunday December 2, 1973

The Experimental Television Center, 164 Court Street, Binghamton, will host a series of seminars from Friday November 30 through Sunday December 2 on the uses of video equipment by gay men and lesbian women in New York State. The seminars will include:

- Videotape Uses in Consciousness Raising and Psychotherapy
- Public Access and Cable Television
- Use and Maintenance of the Portable Video System
- Editing and Post Production Techniques

The workshop will begin on Friday November 30 at 8 pm at the Center. Activities will include the viewing of videotapes, use of the Paik-Abe Color Video Synthesizer and Live Video Mix Performances. Registration, housing and daycare arrangements can be made at this time.

The workshop, which is restricted to gay men and lesbian women, is coordinated by David Sasser and is funded in part by a grant from the Creative Artists Public Service Program and the New York State Council on the Arts. Registration is required because there is a limited amount of equipment available. Anyone interested should contact the Gay Hot Line between 6 and 9 pm November 27-29 at (607) 798-2478. A donation of $5 is requested to help cover expenses.
